

Whispering Winds Women's Retreat 2013

"Every Woman's Journey"

Guest Speaker Katrina Zeno
(aka Cathy Crabb)

As women, we have a unique spiritual journey. We laugh; we cry; we want to draw closer to God and feel his presence. Yet, in the midst of our "busyness" it's easy to stagnate on the journey. We can even get worn out, worn down, and forget to replenish the well.

Take some time away and join us for this special spring retreat entitled, "Every Woman's Journey." Whatever your age or state in life, this retreat will provide the opportunity for God to speak to you about your feminine dignity and identity. You'll gain a new vision for the spiritual journey by looking at a woman's being rather than her doing. You'll also learn what Blessed John Paul II really said about women and how Mary fits into God's plan and reveals the ultimate vocation of women.

Katrina grew up in Pacific Beach, received her first communion and confirmation at St. Brigid's, and graduated from Mission Bay High School. She is the co-foundress of Women of the Third Millennium, an author, an international speaker and the co-host of a 13-part series on EWTN on Bl. John Paul II's "Theology of the Body." Katrina's enthusiasm, real-life examples, and engaging speaking style appeal to married as well as single women. For more about Katrina, visit her web site at www.wttm.org.
