

Camp Ministry Opportunities in Southern California!

Full and Part-Time (weekday and weekend) positions with flexible hours are immediately available at Whispering Winds Camp in San Diego County, CA. We are looking to fill multiple positions in the following areas:

- Administration
- Food Service
- Program Ministry
- Guest Services
- Recreation
- Facilities and Grounds
- Housekeeping

Salaries range from hourly minimum wage to $50K+ annually. Salaries and benefits, housing options, schedules and job titles will all be determined by experience and availability. Relocation expenses can be negotiated. Families are encouraged to inquire; we have jobs for men, women, and children ages 18+.

Successful candidates will have a positive attitude and a dedication to the highest work ethics with good written and verbal communication skills, attention to detail, a willingness for cross-training, and verifiable experience.

Please contact Laura at 619-464-1479 or submit your resume to her at laura@whisperingwinds.org.

The Whispering Winds team is a group of women and men dedicated to the enrichment of the lives of others while working in a creative, positive, up-beat, collegial environment. We are looking to expand our team with individuals seeking the same.

Whispering Winds is an independent, non-profit, faith-based organization committed to providing a safe environment with a wide range of services and programs tailored for children, adults, families, and organizational camps and retreats. Located 45 minutes from downtown San Diego on 161 beautiful acres between Julian and Lake Cuyamaca, the camp is surrounded by some of San Diego County's finest natural beauty!

Whispering Winds follows all recommendations by the CDC regarding Covid-19.